

00 Introduction to Subject CP1

3 primary questions | Oldest to newest

2026 objectives: 3.1

1 related questions are filed elsewhere in this volume. Find them by selecting this chapter and enabling related topics in index.html.

Click a question below to begin.

|                                                    |          |
|----------------------------------------------------|----------|
| CA1-P1   April 2014   Q1           | 9 marks  |
| CA1-P1   September 2018 spare   Q3 | 14 marks |
| CP1-P1   September 2020   Q2       | 8 marks  |

CA1-P1 | April 2014 | Q1

Current topic | 9 marks total | Original PDF p2

Related: Ch 23.

- 1 A general insurance company is looking to enter the public liability insurance market for the first time. It intends to specialise in offering insurance to music festivals, all of which have firework displays to end the festival.

Describe how the actuarial cycle can be used in pricing this product. [9]

CA1-P1 | September 2018 spare | Q3

Current topic | 14 marks total | Original PDF p2

2018 spare paper (X18), distinct from the September main sitting. Original paper and matching spare examiner report restored from the supplied archive. Related: Ch 22.

- 3 An insurance company offers a variety of health insurance products. It is planning to introduce a new product which will involve the use of wearable technology.
- (i) Outline how wearable technology could be used when designing a health insurance product. [4]
  - (ii) Describe how the actuarial control cycle could be used in the development and ongoing financial management of a new health insurance product. [10]
- [Total 14]

CP1-P1 | September 2020 | Q2

Current topic | 8 marks total | Original PDF p2

Related: Ch 23.

- 2 A bank in a developing country and a large international insurer have established a joint venture insurance company. The company's first product will be a term assurance, sold by tied agents (i.e. sales people who only sell the products of one company) through the bank's branches.

Describe how the Actuarial Control Cycle can be used in the pricing and ongoing financial management of the term assurance product. [8]